

JONATHAN MOTHNER

EVP, CHIEF RISK AND LEGAL OFFICER

Jonathan (Jon) Mothner is Executive Vice President, Chief Risk and Legal Officer, one of the nation's premier consumer financial services companies.

Jon oversees all legal activities for Synchrony, including government affairs, securities law, labor and employment, privacy and litigation. He played an instrumental role in Synchrony's initial public offering in 2014 and separation from GE in 2015.

Prior to Synchrony's separation from GE in 2015, Jon was General Counsel for GE Capital's North American retail finance business. He also served as Chief Litigation Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer for GE's global consumer finance business. His experience with GE Capital dates to 2000, when he joined the global consumer finance business as Litigation Counsel.

Earlier in his career, Jon was a federal prosecutor with the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Eastern District of New York, where he specialized in investigating and prosecuting federal crimes, including securities fraud, money laundering and bank fraud. Jon also worked in the litigation group with a private law firm and clerked for a U.S. District Court Judge in Delaware.

Jon is a board member of the Pro Bono Partnership, a nationally recognized provider of free business and transactional legal services to nonprofits, and is a member of the American Law Institute.

Jon earned a bachelor's degree in economics at Hobart College and a law degree from the New York University School of Law.

He is married with two children.
